The HOPE Project Mobile Health Clinic, in partnership with Tri-City Health Center, provides health and social services to homeless people in southern and eastern Alameda County. Abode Services develop and implement innovative programs, such as harm reduction supplies.

To view Abode’s HOPE Program Mobile locations, please click here. For further information, please visit Abode Services.

To view location and hours, please click here.

Bay Area Community Health - Tri-City Health Center

- Bay Area Community Health (BACH) provides a wide spectrum of health education, healthcare, and social services to everyone, without regard to financial position, ethnicity, language, culture, sexual orientation or any other criteria.

Distribution by Mail

Next Naloxone

To access NEXT Naloxone, please click here.
- NEXT Naloxone is an online opioid overdose responder training site that includes mail-based naloxone distribution at no cost to people who use drugs or individuals most likely to be first responders in an opioid overdose incident.

24-Hour Pick-Up Distribution

Highland Hospital Emergency Department

- Highland Hospital is Alameda Health System’s flagship, with 236 inpatient beds; a renowned regional trauma center; nationally recognized medical and clinical teaching and research; opioid addiction treatment; and state-of-the-art primary, specialty, and multi-specialty care.
- Highland’s ED offers anonymous distribution to anyone at anytime and you do not need to register as a patient to receive a Narcan Kit, all you have to do is ask the front desk.

San Leandro Hospital Emergency Department

- San Leandro Hospital is a 93-bed facility in central Alameda County offering 24-hour emergency services, critical care, and surgical and rehabilitation services, serving a population of 265,000. Its Level II Emergency Department has 13 beds and serves 34,000 patients a year. San Leandro’s ED offers anonymous distribution to anyone at any time and you do not need to register as a patient to receive a Narcan Kit, all you have to do is ask the front desk.

Bay Area Community Health - Tri-City Health Center

- To view location and hours, please click here.
- BAART Programs provide high-quality, patient-focused treatment for addiction to prescription medications and other opiates such as heroin and fentanyl, remains the focus of BAART Programs clinics.

Needle Exchange Emergency Distribution (NEED)

- Needle Exchange Emergency Distribution (NEED) offers free, anonymous services in a client-centered manner, and are dedicated to the prevention of infectious diseases. We also offer overdose prevention and education components to address the rising number of overdoses among injection drug users.

Walk-In Distribution (Please Check Hours by Visiting Website)

Abode Services – HOPE Program

- To view Abode’s HOPE Program Mobile locations, please click here. For further information, please visit Abode Services.
- The HOPE Project Mobile Health Clinic, partnership with Tri-City Health Center, provides health and social services to homeless people in southern and eastern Alameda County. Abode Services develop and implement innovative programs, such as harm reduction supplies.

BAART Programs

- To view location and hours, please click here.
- The mission of BAART Programs is to improve the lives of clients by providing high-value care that addresses clients’ physical, mental, and social well-being in one location.

Punks with Lunch - Community Outreach Harm Reduction Team (COHRT)

- To view location and hours, please click here.
- Punks with Lunch - Community Outreach Harm Reduction Team (COHRT) is a guerilla not-for-profit Harm reduction outreach organization providing food and other necessities to people experiencing homelessness.

HIV Education and Prevention Project of Alameda County (HEPPAC) - Casa Segura

- To view location and hours, please click here.
- The mission of HIV Education and Prevention Project of Alameda County (HEPPAC) is to stop the spread of HIV and Hepatitis C (HCV) among increased risk populations and to reduce the impact of drug-related harm to the communities of Alameda County.

LifeLong Trust Health Center

- To view location and hours, please click here.
- The mission of LifeLong Trust Health Center is to improve the lives of clients by providing high-value care that addresses clients’ physical, mental, and social well-being in one location.

CONTACT US:

Alameda-Contra Costa Medical Association – East Bay Safe Prescribing Coalition
Phone: 510-654-5383
Website: eastbaysaferx.org
Email: eastbaysaferx@accma.org

Disclaimer: This is not a complete list of organizations and health care providers who distribute Naloxone. If you would like your organization or health care provider listed, please contact eastbaysaferx@accma.org.

Below you will find resources about how to access Naloxone, sterile supplies and many other things which go along with the webinar training. If you’ve viewed the training and are interested in receiving a free naloxone kit for opioid overdose reversal, this is a list of distribution partners. Anyone in California is able to equip themselves with naloxone, without the need for a prescription.